5. Media Accreditation

The International Skating Union (ISU) and the Organizing Committee (OC) work diligently to ensure there will be ample coverage opportunities available to media outlets wishing to cover the ISU Events.

All media must apply for media accreditation through the official website for Road To 26, following the link below:

Media Accreditation | ISU Junior Speed Skating World Cup 2025 –Milano | Novembre 29 –30, 2025

!\ When applying, please make sure to upload all requested press credentials.

Media accreditation is strictly reserved for recognised Media professionals, employed by or representing recognised media organizations (including news agencies, printed or online publications, TV/radio broadcasters) covering ISU Events for editorial or news purposes. Under specific conditions, content creators and social media reporters may be considered by the ISU Media team. Additionally, ISU Member Federation representatives officially designated for press and communication duties may be eligible for accreditation.

For requests, please contact Jaiden.Chung@isu.org directly.

!\ Individuals affiliated with sponsors, brands, marketing and or advertising agencies are not eligible for media accreditation.

5.1. Accreditation Process & Requirements

Making use of the link provided above – Media Accreditation | ISU Junior Speed Skating World Cup 2025 -Milano | Novembre 29 -30, 2025 – please fill in all required fields and follow the registration process:

Step 1: Enter or verify your personal details and media organization contact information.

Step 2: Provide information about your media organization's digital presence and outreach.

Step 3: Click the box in the form, to accept the Privacy Notice on the processing of personal data; then click on "Confirm" to complete your registration.

!/ \ Only complete applications submitted before the deadline will be considered.

5.2. Accreditation type, deadline and pick-up

For this event the only type of media accreditation available is the accreditation_for media attending the event in person, "on-site". Remote type accreditation is not available.

If the accreditation request is accepted, an automatic confirmation email will be issued. On arrival at the competition venue, you may be asked to present a copy of the confirmation email and your passport at the accreditation desk to receive your accreditation badge.

You will also be notified if your accreditation request is denied. Note that the ISU and OC reserve the right to refuse accreditation requests with or without justification.

The accreditation deadline is 20/11/2025.

!/ \ No late media accreditation applications will be accepted.

The Accreditation Desk for accredited media will be located at the entrance of pavilion 13-15 and will be open 25 – 30 November 2025, according to the following schedule:

Date	Time
25 – 28 November 2025	09:00 – 17:00	Training Days
29 – 30 November 2025	07:00 – 19:00	Competition Days
